Sweet fair-haired tiny girl you're so cute,
it brought tears to my eyes
when I first held you in my arms.
Lucas, my sweet heart knee high to a grasshopper, could I ever find the words to tell you how much I love you?

Little bro... you mean so much to me.
Sweet tiny girl when you're snuggled up to me together we would stay forever this way.

Pretty princesses you grew up so fast.
Affliction through the distance my heart is bleeding.

feels like I'm moving away from you a little bit more everyday.
Feels like you're so far away away from me...

You're my blood, my flesh, my essence and my soul.
you're all I've got, what would I be without you?
you mean so much my sweet tiny girls...
I'm singing this sweet lullaby, sitting there right by your side and as I hold your hands you close your eyes.
