I switch my tube on and get my ass down on the couch, 200,000 empty frames now come torpedoing my brain.
My washed out mind gets caught right up in it, engrossed in rubbish it starts slowly melting...
Mass is going apeshit over so much crap,
daily screwing around,
stuck right down on the couch
we're waiting for the box to light up our minds.

Media schedule stupid broadcasts
they break modeled news to manipulate us,
to drive us psychotic, nuts...
broadcasting what they want us to see,
what they want us to hear once more.
Time has come now,
to chuck this crap upon me.
A flood of dumb advertisings praising us the merits of products we could easily live without,
and yet we rush out to buy...
Mass is going apeshit over so much crap,
daily screwing around,
stuck right down on the couch
we're waiting for the box to light up our minds.

Media schedule stupid broadcasts
they break modeled news to manipulate us,
to drive us psychotic, nuts...
broadcasting what they want us to see,
what they want us to hear once more (x2)
