Homer: You could close down Moe's or the Kuik-e-Mart and nobody would care
But the heart and soul of springfield's in our Maison Derriere

Belle: Were the sauce on you steak Were the cheese in your cake we put the Spring in Springfield Dancers: were the lace on the nightgown were the point after touchdown Yes we put the Spring in Springfield

Belle: Were that little extra spice that makes egzistance extra nice
a biddly little thrill at a reasonable price

Reverand Lovejoy: Our only major quorrals are with your total lack of morals

Dancers: Our skimpie costumes aint so bad they seem to entertain your dad

Belle: The gin in your martini, the clams on your linguine
Yes, we keep the spring in Springfield Wiggum, Krusty & Skinner: We remember our first visit

Mayor Quimby: The service was exquisite!
Mrs Quimby: Why, Joseph, I had no idea!
Mayor Quimby: Come on now, you were working here!
[Grampa & Jasper]

Without it, we'd have had no fun
Since the March of 1961!

Bart: To shut it down now would be twisted Jimbo, Dolph & Kearney: We just heard this place existed

Dancers: We're the highlights in your hairdo

Apu: The extra arms on Bishnu!

Dancers: So, don't take the Spring

Men: We won't take the Spring

All: Yes, let's keep the SPRING in Springfield!
