All that I knew
Whatever that was
Forgot it all
And couldn't for the life of me restore
The years dragged on
And all was lost
Reduced to nothing more than callous embitterment

One day I said fuck the world
One day I said life is shit
One day didn't say a word
One day I said

Took so damn long
To come this far
Had to do everything the hard way
I don't even know me anymore

And then one day

I had a plan
Didn't care about what I had just what I have right now
Now here I am
The bitter end
Victory tastes just like rotten meat
At least it's over now

One day I said fuck the world
One day I said life is shit
One day didn't say a word
One day I said

Took so damn long
To come this far
Had to do everything the hard way
I don't even know me anymore
