They told me 'bout a man who's name is god
They didn't know he's just a grand facade
Didn't take me long to disagree
That no religion is the one for me

Attracted to the light It ain't that bright
Try to break me down and that ain't right
No one's there to answer all your prayers
'Cus god is evil or he doesn't care

God's just an idea that we made for ourselves
Who needs a god when he's just like everyone else

I don't need a ghost to tell me what I can and cannot do
I don't need superstition to tell me what is and isn't true

And all you worthless scum can kneel in reverence of your ghost
Self-degrade and kiss the ass of who you fear the most Until he'd like to give a reason I'll ask him to appear
I'll be doing what I want and when without a fear
