Don't go, the way I used to feel don't feel no more
Wrote a song long time ago
And I'm just tryina give myself one more
Now my heart wants to stop beating
To the sound of a strange drum

And my love is steady receding
But you still tryina pull on that
And now I wonder how my heart didn't feel that
You used to fill me up, now I'm intact, intact
You put me up on ice, drying the rhythm
It was the only way that I could glam away, swim away
You wanna talk but ain't nothing to say Baby, the day you're gone made me thing about my heart
Somehow you put a whole in it
And now you win, you want a path in a heart with a hole in it
With a hole in it, with a hole in it
With a hole in it, with a hole in my heart
You put a hole in it, a hole in it
With a hole in my heart
No wrong, you made me feel like our love was forever
Don't you smile, clever, this tune now comes with you whatever

Now my heart wants to stop beating
To the sound of a strange drum
And my love is steady receding
But you still tryina pull on that
And now I wonder how my heart didn't feel that
You used to fill me up, now I'm intact, intact
You put me up on ice, drying the rhythm
It was the only way that I could stay back Baby, the day you're gone made me thing about my
heart
Somehow you put a whole in it
And now you win, you want a path in a heart with a hole
in it
With a hole in it, with a hole in it
With a hole in it, with a hole in my heart

You put a hole in it, a hole in it
With a hole in my heart
