I will never be the same
Yeah, my heart's forever changed
And I won't be looking back
Once you've got me on this track

I will never be alone
Yeah' it's like a desert storm
You blind my eyes and keep me warm
Yeah, it's like a desert storm

You've always had a way with me
Made me all that I could be
All I'm asking is, baby please
Won't you stay right here with me?
You always had a way with me

You're so pretty that it hurts
And here's the truth for what it's worth
There will never come a day
That I will ever walk away

You've always had a way with me
Made me all that I could be
All I'm asking is, baby please
Won't you stay right here with me?
You always had a way with me

The leaves will fall from the trees tonight
As the city light goes out
And now when there's not a soul in sight
I can't help but think about
The sweet scents
The candle light and your smile
It feels so right

You're so pretty that it hurts
And here's the truth for what it's worth
There will never come a day
That I will ever walk away

You've always had a way with me

Made me all that I could be
All I'm asking is, baby please
Won't you stay right here with me?
You always had a way with me
