feat. Greedy & Donkey

[Hook] x 2

I had to drop my main hoe,
Man this bitch done switched up
Cut up my old partner
The man is pussy, done switched up
Chevy to a benz, I got straight and I switched up Ill ends from nowhole mall done switched up

Hunned rounds on me, from that 50 I switched up
Mt partner turned on me, uh, shit nigga switched up
The cable wide nigga, last I heard he was snitched up Got hitters all in prison, catch your vale, even stitched up
Word long nigga, round my city Im bitched up
That choppa long nigga, at the top only its us
Ask who a nigga, to the dirt lma throw it up
When we started duck tape the chosen
Through it, it was 10 of us
I was still robbing black and 6 they was getting on Cut off a few niggas, top the fruit shit they switched up Alley but not a rapper, shit these lanes got me mixed
up
I really be in the streets with all the shooters, we live up

I was raised by some hard heads, cut throats and real

On eye slanging its a lil nigga, stalk you out and deal

And aint nobody up in my section living only holy Assault you out and let you rip, and leave you holy

Then let me on a donut, you done fucked up
But I still know sosa so Im bricked up
Duck taping the antie, we done clicked up
Same motto, do this shit for all the niggas broke
And I aint gonna say this shit no more, free my nigga

Cut these industry niggas, they be switching up
But Im so gangster, so real, so street
Im all g, aint no switching at me
