I can't stop thinking bout you, thinking bout you
I can't stop thinking bout you, thinking bout you

Oh, what did I do? It's been a long time
I've been missing you
Can't help but wonder, how do you do?
My days I blue, in case you didn't know
I can't stop thinking bout you

Re-run it, keep on playing it back
I'm missing you like they be missing the rain in Irak
Said I needed space, weighting out the pros and cons
Try to keep in touch, keep on getting no response
Come on don't do me like that, I don't deserve it
Turning your back on me, got me feeling deserted
When all I needed was time, let me know how you feeling
So I can keep it in mind, we can get back to chilling babe
What's the issue, I'm tryina figure it out
So that I could run up and kiss you,
And get to digging it out
Put yourself in my shoes, I had to give you some room
Sick of singing the blues, I had to switch up the tune
And you the melody, my dudes keep on telling me
Let it be, your silhouette tattooed in my memory
She said I just can't love you no more
But all I wanna know

Oh, what did I do? It's been a long time
I've been missing you
Can't help but wonder, how do you do?
My days I blue, in case you didn't know
I can't stop thinking bout you
Thinking bout you, thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
I can't stop thinking bout you

You been running through my mind, even though it didn't work how I wanted
I can't front, I knew the time
Done of you the grind, wish I never did

Said I had to leave, I wish I never split
Wanted you to breathe, let me keep it 100
I just wanted to believe, I'm giving you what you wanted
And it don't make sense, I feel like a fool
Man all that love shit is cool, but it don't pay rents
Before I sit at home stressing, worry she forgot about me
And if the next man seen her undress, then I move on Hit the bottle till it runs dry
Cloud 9, I just wanted you to come fly Dumb high, reminiscing on how once was
One lie, till you bitter like fuck love
Till your best friend end to a foe
But all I wanna know

Oh, what did I do? It's been a long time
I've been missing you
Can't help but wonder, how do you do?
My days I blue, in case you didn't know
I can't stop thinking bout you
Thinking bout you, thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
I can't stop thinking bout you

You've been running through my mind all day and night
Stay the night, I promise I'll make it right
I could bring that old feeling back
Let me know if you feeling that
I wanna make it all better, hit your weak spot
Get you in my bedroom, make your knees knot
Keep on doing it until you say please stop
Even know it feel good, you know I'd still would Take it to the limit, gotta chase it if you live it
And I'd hate to see you go, but I replace you in a minute
Baby let me know, we can make it if you wanted
All I want is you, what is gonna take for you to get it
Time will tell I'll find them well
Still feeling you, girl we like them blind in Braille
You got a player tryina cough it on the low
But all I wanna know

Oh, what did I do? It's been a long time
I've been missing you
Can't help but wonder, how do you do?
My days I blue, in case you didn't know
I can't stop thinking bout you
Thinking bout you, thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
I can't stop thinking bout you.
