I just can't seem to let you go (I can't seem to let you go!) Though my mind says walk out that door (Walk out that door) My heart says take it easy, you love her more than anything But it's tempting, to just stop believe Cause I'm filled with so much doubt So if we gonna work this out Chorus: Baby you gotta know If you love me, then let it show, Don't let this moment slip away! If you're done with all the lies and simply apologize I'm willing to give it a try! Cause once the moment is gone, gone, gone, is gone forever Cause once the moment is gone, gone, gone, gone, is gone! I can't let everything I say and do, ..thinking of you, oh, oh But no doubt if the conversation starts.. baby we're through! It's constant arguments, questions and where you've been Find out you're somewhere else when you say you're with girlfriends And you know it's killing me, cause with you I wanna be But there's something that I need, I gotta know baby! Chorus: Baby you gotta know If you love me, then let it show, Don't let this moment slip away! If you're done with all the lies and simply apologize I'm willing to give it a try! Cause once the moment is gone, gone, gone, is gone forever Cause once the moment is gone, gone, gone, gone, is gone! We've been through things in the past and never got all â€¦ And now the clock is ticking, your time is running out We need to make up or break up Girl I need know! Chorus: (x3) Baby you gotta know If you love me, then let it show, Don't let this moment slip away! If you're done with all the lies and simply apologize I'm willing to give it a try! Cause once the moment is gone, gone, gone, is gone forever Cause once the moment is gone, gone, gone, gone, is gone!
