Here is a soundtrack for an end
The last embrace for a friend
A memory of a life gone by
The party's over, say goodbye
This is a soundtrack for an end
When it's too late to make amends
A final dance before we meet
The shadow falling on our feet

Floating away
I'm gonna live for today
Ain't gonna miss, miss a thing
Until I die

It's just a soundtrack for an end

Though it can be hard to comprehend
The bitter taste of an useless plea
Things are not what they used to be Playing a soundtrack for an end
I find no reason to pretend
'cos everything here fades away
There's nothing ever stays the same

Floating away
I'm gonna live for today
I'm gonna run, run the risk
Until I die
