The Ben Taylor Band
"Wrong"

i know i figured it out a thousand ways i thought about it a thousand times a day i learned my lesson and i'm not afraid i could be so strong i've got my body i've got my word i've got my money, my car, my girl i think that music could change the world but it could take so long but i could be so wrong, i could be so wrong i could be so wrong so wrong don't put your faith in the hands of thieves don't let no one tell you what you need i know you like it the way it seems but you could be so wrong i never thought it could be so far i mean i won the battle and lost my queen i know she'll come back eventually but it could take so long and i could be so and i could be so wrong

(repeated)
(whistles)
lalalalalaalal lalallalalalalala lalallalalalalal
lalalalalala
and i could be so wrong
i could be so wrong
so wrong
cause i could be so wrong
i could be so wrong
