Midnight has gone
the sun burns my skin
the light is alarming as i watch you sleep rest your head little one

The sirens are calling
they sing to me again
a sad serenade
my heart is sinking again
little one
I'm gone...I'm gone

down this lonely road
ill just keep moving
i wont stop now, until i get where I'm going
and all i know
is that I'm all alone

My fingers are swollen

my knuckles are bruised the aching heart inside me hurts worse than the two does yours?
Lonely and tired, i sing out a tune I'm dead for the night in my coffin i scream out to you
little one
I'm gone...I'm gone
