Well it seems to be the time where i say goodbye catch all the tears welling up in her eyes sent away once again ill miss you my friend a heart learns to break and heal over again but ill never turn away i million words could never say what I'm trying to say so ill wait till i get home...

We will be lonely in love unfortunately we will be lonely in love with every passing day i think of all the reasons why i choose to live life this way and i know, i wouldn't be the same without you my life's fulfilled and you are to blame so i'll stare at this photograph and ill just fallow these lines in the road follow them home
