

Black Kiss Superstar "Enough"

Visit "Enough" on MotoLyrics.com

We've been drinking all together,
talkin' loud about the past,
I'm just trying to feel it better
After knowing I'm the last.

That's just Rock n Roll
I can feel your soul
You said nothing's wrong
But, baby I can't get enough.

I've been out until it's late
Just can't find the way go home
Don't remember the words you said, babe!
I just know that I'm alone.

That's just Rock n Roll
I can feel your soul
You said nothing's wrong

I can't feel enough
Baby I can't feel enough.

Now I'm Laying on the ground
Empty bottles all around
You said never was too late
Now I know that you're a fake

It was not my fault
To bet my soul
That's just Rock n Roll
I can't get enough
But baby, I can't feel enough
I can't feel enough.....
I can't feel enough....
