Its hard when you think about it when you got a couple a friends and they annoy you when they gotta talk to you or they implore you and you try to tell them off and they ignore you you try and they never leave you wonder if they'll ever understand you you wonder if they'll ever see your point view and you try to tell them off and they ignore you

you try to make em leave and they wont leave x 8

Get Out! Get Out!

Get out its what you say to them and they look at you like you have a problem like they were right and you have wronged em like its not your place you dont belong here you get mad and you start to yell they finally start to think about leaving they startle you by believing that they're true intent was majorly decieving

you try to make em leave and they wont leave x 8

Get Out! Get Out!

You try so hard to make them leave and they dont even bat an eye
You swear if they stay just one more second you'll kill them and they will die
they dont even take you seriously and it makes you want to rage
you promise them inside your thoughts that you're going to engage

Get Out! Get Out!

Get out you try the phrase again you try to act like you are nothing but a friend to them like you have nothing but good thoughts about them stopping in but you try to make them leave cuz you are shutting in Get lost you're showing your anger now they look kinda confused about your temper they start to back away from your demeanor you swear that someone just called you a weener

you try to make em leave and they wont leave x 8

bat an eye
will die
want to rage
going to engage

Get before I can rip you to pieces x 8
