Everyday I eat and I sleep and I sleep and I eat over and over again and again the winter has come, the summer is gone It's hot then it's cold, where I have been

Where are you, a point in space in the same damn place, with a different taste To warn yourself, that differences are better in this place

So Hey, yeah, you want the same but different Hey, yeah, you try to listen so you dont miss it Hey, yeah, Gotta keep it new, gotta keep it fresh Gotta stick out, stand out, change your mind, take your time
inside, outside, everybody look alive

Every working day I punch in I punch out I punch in Over and over again and again
The jobs that've come, the jobs that are gone They're all the same, where I have been

Where are you, a point in space
in the same damn place, with a different taste
To warn yourself, that differences are better in this place

So Hey, yeah, you want the same but different
Hey, yeah, you try to listen so you dont miss it
Hey, yeah, Gotta keep it new, gotta keep it fresh Gotta stick out, stand out, change your mind, take your
inside, outside, everybody look alive

A routine doesn't change
Don't get stuck in an infinitely looping page You're almost out of time Spend it wisely or you'll end up speaking out of line You're almost out of time x4 ...

So Hey, yeah, you want the same but different

Hey, yeah, you try to listen so you dont miss it
Hey, yeah, Gotta keep it new, gotta keep it fresh Gotta stick out, stand out, change your mind, take your
inside, outside, everybody look alive

So Hey, yeah, you want the same but different
Hey, yeah, you try to listen so you dont miss it
Hey, yeah, Gotta keep it new, gotta keep it fresh Gotta stick out, stand out, change your mind, take your
time
inside, outside, everybody look alive
