I went inside a cave, I fell inside a hole put a torch against the wall, can't tell you what I saw Theres more than I can count, I keep on seeing more
Put my back against the wall

Theres more, they're coming for you, dividing in two obstructing your view, a deadly goo.

Slimes are gonna kill you
They'll corner you and dissolve your body
Not before they surround you
Multiply right before your eyes

The more I try to kill, the more I have to run
My legs are gonna give, before the night is done
Theres more than I can count, I keep on seeing more
Put my back against the wall

Theres more, they're coming for you, dividing in two
obstructing your view, a deadly goo.

Slimes are gonna kill you
They'll corner you and dissolve your body
Not before they surround you
Multiply right before your eyes

Theres more, they're coming for you, dividing in two
obstructing your view, a deadly goo.
Theres more, they're coming for you, dividing in two
obstructing your view, a deadly goo.
Theres more, they're coming for you, dividing in two
obstructing your view, a deadly goo.
Theres more, they're coming for you, dividing in two
obstructing your view, a deadly goo.

Slimes are gonna kill you
They'll corner you and dissolve your body
Not before they surround you
Multiply right before your eyes

Slimes are gonna kill you

They'll corner you and dissolve your body
Not before they surround you
Multiply right before your eyes

Slimes are gonna kill you
They'll corner you and dissolve your body
Not before they surround you
Multiply right before your eyes

Slimes are gonna kill you
They'll corner you and dissolve your body
Not before they surround you
Multiply right before your eyes
