I'm so tired I just wanna sleep
I can't close my eyes I can't close my eyes
I gather my things, my tools. my food, my stone, my diamond rings, the day is gone I cannot stay here
I take my time, my life, is short, the end,
is coming, I remind myself that I can't stay here

Before I can leave, I am attacked
Im trying to run, but they're at my back
I can't get the door so I turn around
I see red eyes I see red eyes
They're coming to get you they are the spiders
They're coming to bite you they are the spiders
Skeleton riders upon the spiders
I close my eyes and then open there is a spider

I can't get out they have me cornered
I wonder if thiss'll be the end
I take my time, my life, is short, the end,
is coming, I remind myself that I can't stay here

Before I can leave, I am attacked
Im trying to run, but they're at my back
I can't get the door so I turn around
I see red eyes I see red eyes

Before I can leave, I am attacked
Im trying to run, but they're at my back
I can't get the door so I turn around
I see red eyes I see red eyes

They're coming to get you they are the spiders
They're coming to bite you they are the spiders
Skeleton riders upon the spiders
I close my eyes and then open there is a spider

They're coming to get you they are the spiders
They're coming to bite you they are the spiders
Skeleton riders upon the spiders
I close my eyes and then open there is a spider
