Here comes a big bang to set it off
Here comes photosynthesis
Here comes they with their shinny legs
Here's Australopithecus

To wait for no man
The Gods have said that we'll carry on
As I see a world still unknown
The Watchers are at the gates ahead Push on

With you I wash away rebirth has a subtle stain
I only wish to meet you when you stand on your feet again

In time we possess the words that were meant to be said
Blood runs all through our veins healthy as can be

Here comes they hunting for their kin
Here comes life with schadenfreude
Here comes land with a farming hand
Here lives I to strive on Freedom perceived
So run if you please
Towards the new land
As I pray for you that one day
You'll find just for you
To call your own...home
