You could make my day
What did I do anyway?
Change your mind and stay
We can shake the blues away

Girl, this ain't a game
That we both should play
Maybe I was wrong
Treating you that way

You could make my day
What did I do anyway?
Change your mind and stay
We can shake the blues away

Anytime you want me
If you're feeling down
Why don't you come with me?
I'll turn you around

I wish I could cross this great divide
Be with you there on the other side
Together we'll scale this mountain high
You never could run this river dry

It's not that easy you say
With different people
Sometimes you think I'm okay
Sometimes I'm evil

No matter how much you cry
That dirt will stay in your eye
It's getting harder to find
But we don't have a deadline

You put me to the test
This could be our getaway
You keep me feeling fresh
We're driving down that highway

Anytime you want me
If you're feeling down

Why don't you come with me?
I'll turn you around

I wish I could cross this great divide
Be with you there on the other side
Together we'll scale this mountain high
You never could run this river dry

I wish I could cross this great divide
Be with you there on the other side
I wish I could cross this great divide
Be with you there on the other side
