When the rain comes down
Through the hole in the roof
And every nail in the house
Is coming loose

A for sale sign stuck in the yard
The day it sells is gonna break her heart

She knows Im out there doing the best I can
Trying to keep these wolves away with my bare hands
We work and scrape and fight and pray until it hurts
I lean on her, she leans on me
Thats what we do
When ends dont meet

When I drag it home
Dead on my feet
If she worries at all
She dont let on to me

Her simple smile can say so much
Her ten dollar dress looks like a million bucks

She knows Im out there doing the best I can
Trying to keep these wolves away with my bare hands
We work and scrape and fight and pray until it hurts
I lean on her, she leans on me
Thats what we do
When ends dont meet

We hold on a little longer
A little tighter, a little stronger
We love a little deeper
And we dance across the kitchen

She knows Im out there doing the best I can
Trying to keep these wolves away with my bare hands
We work and scrape we fight and pray until it hurts
I lean on her, she leans on me
Thats what we do
Yeah thats what we do

When ends dont meet
When ends dont meet
