And they come
And they come

See them prancing
They come neighing, they come
A horse nation

See them prancing
Neighing they came
See them prancing
Proudly they will come again

The whole world is coming
From the four directions
Scream and shout

See them prancing
They come neighing, they come
A horse nation

See them prancing
Neighing they came
See them prancing
Proudly they will come again

The whole world is coming
From the four directions
Scream and shout

See them prancing
They come neighing
A horse nation
Neighing they came

See them prancing
They come neighing
A horse nation
Neighing they came

See them prancing
Proudly they will come again

The whole world is coming
From the four directions
Why don't you scream and shout?
