How will it turn out?
Starting needs are waiting out on the way to the dead hotel.
Beside an empty light, falling into their pretty hands.
All of them androids have a

One day's flight.
Take you back in time when it wasn't such a brand across your breast, strain upon your back.
When a good life was enough

Would it be so wrong?
Danny needs you up in his place.
Can your batteries replace this heart?
Lying in the yard, wanted it to be natural love
a sun fallen under.

But dreams float up
from fishers in the flood
at a new dimension.
Leaving only parts to play
needs are forming again.
A good life will just never be enough.

Dreams float up
from fishers in the flood
at a new dimension.
Leaving only parts to play
needs are forming again.
A good life will never be enough.
A good life will never be enough.
A good life will never be enough.
