"No Significance"

Open my eyes, horizon the light from the sky is blinding clouds are gloomy and dark gray I thought I heard the birds singing it sounds like Otis Redding so I know I must be in a daze I feel like a cup of coffee but it's no good for me and I know the milk went off last week feel like I'm going crazy maybe the birds will save me maybe I should go on back to sleep

[Chorus]

Feels like I must be over my head man I don't know something in my mind just ain't making sense when you're three pounds short and need to pay your rent there's no significance something in my mind just ain't sitting right when my car's broke down and I need a ride there's no significance to anyone but me

Ta da, ta da ta da, ta da ta da, ta da
there's no significance to anyone but me

So sick and tired of working I feel like my brain is hurting fed up with staring at the screen I don't like the bus driver never changed from a fiver and there's never seating space for me

[Chorus]

Feels like I must be over my head
something in my mind just ain't making sense when I'm three pounds short and need to pay my rent
there's no significance
like when my car's broke down and I need a ride

Don't nobody else but me care when my life goes wrong so I got to help myself no negativity take responsibility that's got significance yeah

[Chorus]

My life just ain't making sense when I'm three pounds short and need to pay my rent
there's no significance
