6pm in the city
Everyone looks just like you
It's not the same alone
Fishing for your sympathy
I'm just fishing for your sympathy

You're not like any other one I've found before
No, you're like them all together but better
And it's not what I wanted to think
No, it's not what I wanted to think

You say I'm looking very well today
Well I guess
I guess that I've got you all fooled
I guess that I've got you all fooled
I guess that I've got you all fooled

Who do you think you are when everyone's asleep?
And all I got was thanks for nothing
You're not what I should think about
No, you're not what I should think about

You say I'm looking very well today
Well I guess

I guess that I've got you all fooled
I guess that I've got you all fooled
I guess that I've got you all fooled

I'm not looking quite myself today
I'm not feeling like myself at all
You say I'm looking very well today
I guess that I've got you all fooled

6pm in the city
Everyone looks just like you
It's not the same alone
Fishing for your sympathy
I'm just fishing for your sympathy

You're not like any other one I've found before
No, you're like them all together but better

And it's not what I wanted to think
It's not what I wanted to think
It's not what I wanted to think
It's not what I wanted to think
