"Big House"

I don't know where you lay your head, or where you call your home.

I don't know where you eat your meals, or where you talk on the phone.

I don't know if you've got a cook, a butler, or a maid.
I don't know if you've got a yard with a hammock in the shade.

I don't know if you've got some shelter, say some place to hide.

I don't know if you live with friends in whom you can confide.

I don't know if you've got a family, say a mom or dad.
I don't know if you love at all, but I bet you wish you had.

CHORUS:

Come and go with me to my father's house.
Come and go with me to my father's house.
It's a big, big house with lots and lots of room.
A big, big table with lots and lots of food.
A big, big yard where we can play football.
A big, big house, it's my father's house.

All I know is a big, big house with rooms for everyone.
All I know is lots of land where we can play and run.

All I know is you need love, and I've got a family.
All I know is your all alone, why not come with me.

Repeat CHORUS.
