Its freedom, do you believe that?

Through you the blind will see
Through you the mute will sing
Through you the dead will rise
Through you our hearts will praise
Through you the darkness flees
My heart screams i am free
I am free

I am free to run
I am free to dance
I am free to live for u
I am free
Yes I am free

I am free to run
I am free to dance
I am free to live for you
I am free
Yes I am free

Through you the blind will see
Through you the mute will sing
Through you the dead will rise
Through you our hearts will praise
Through you the darkness flees
Through you my hearts screams I am free

Are you free?

I am free
I am free to run
I am free to dance
I am free
Yes I am free

He was despised, rejected by men, a man of sorrows, familiar with suffering surely he took up our infirmities, surely he carried our sorrows, he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities Because of his wounds we are healed! Because of his wounds

I am healed! Because of his wounds we are healed!
Do you believe that? Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

I am free
I am free to run
I am free to dance
I am free
Yes i am free

Hold out your hands for freedom!
Freedom in your head, freedom in your heart, freedom in your mind, freedom in your emotions, freedom in every area of your life
The freedom comes through the blood, it comes through the Word, it comes through the body, it comes through spiritual foundations
Its price has been paid, freedom's price has been paid, its price has been paid
