Who could stand apart from your presence,
Once we have tasted the goodness of your love?
Who could change a heart? Only you can.
Restless and thirsty for healing from above.

You break the heavens open, and I'm trying to swallow
the ocean.

I'm coming alive with you.
I'm coming undone with you.
I'm coming away with you.
With the faith of a child I come.
With my hands lifted high I come.
I'm coming alive with you.

Who can know your thoughts and your purpose?
I want to join in listen and obey.
Who can do the things that you can?
If it's impossible, Lord you know the way.

You break the heavens open, and I'm trying to swallow
the ocean.

I'm coming alive with you.
I'm coming undone with you.
I'm coming away with you.
With the faith of a child I come.
With my hands lifted high I come.
I'm coming alive with you.

You make all things new. (x6)

I'm coming alive with you.
I'm coming undone with you.
I'm coming away with you.
With the faith of a child I come.
With my hands lifted high I come.
I'm coming alive with you.
