Watch the, watch the way I walk
Can't you think my movements talk
Watch the, watch the way I walk
Can't you think my movements talk

See me silently quietly creep
But I am too amped up to sleep
Lamp rays shining down
Street lamps make that busing sound
Subway's creaking down below
Garbage piled up and ready to go

I lock the windows, the gates on
A taxi in the distance coming along
Stalking the streets till the break of day
New York beauty take my breath away
Hear some cats but dog's don't bark
Cool cats strolling after dark, alright

Watch the, watch the way I walk
Can't you think my movements talk
Watch the, watch the way I walk
Can't you think my movements talk

Shaky lock and kicky door
Smokey air that I adore
Down in the alley is where I hunt
All is quiet on the eastern front
Stalking the streets till the break of day
New York beauty take my breath away

Watch the, watch the way I walk
Can't you think my movements talk
Watch the, watch the way I walk
Can't you think my movements talk
Can't you think my movements talk
Can't you think my movements talk
Can't you think my movements talk
