Or brother how can you say? Bearing the truth so that you aim Singing every second to me I hear church bells crying grills
And there's some massive organ tubes
To find me sweeping in the quire Tears , of the airs, I'm jumped to closes, bye byes from the hands
Oh brother, sister, you're soul to my soul
My heart is in the hands you're soul to my soul
Harmony forgot to tell you left my soul
On sunlight spark, bless this soul

Oh brother oh sister, how you looked up close more lovely than ever at your wedding Lay to the air, , summer bird this is beauty and I'll explode
To a father reaches for your hand, it's going to be alright, oh father, I love you for Your , in my heart,

Oh brother, sister, you're soul to my soul
My heart is in the hands you're soul to my soul
Harmony forgot to tell you left my soul
On sunlight spark, bless this soul, bless this soul.

Thanks to Andrei
