Well you always causing' havoc when you walk into a bar
a little' skirt's a rising', drive me crazy from a far you know I always wanted it, you stick it in my face I gotta go defuse before I blow apart

You're my Detonation
You're my Detonation
You're my Detonation
You're always gonna make me explode

I never saw a finer thing, I never stood a chance I always wanna talk to you, my tounge get's tangled fast
I'm lookin' for an answer as you glide and pass me by I'm like a stick of dynamite that's gonna blast a mile

You're my Detonation
You're my Detonation
You're my Detonation
You're always gonna make me explode

I guess I'm never gonna know unless I'm talking' fast I'm tired of scratching' my behind, I gotta make a pass still looking' for an answer I don't know that I'll get unless I make a stand, I'll fizzle out and die don't want to blow it, I know it I really want to show it I have to confess my explosive tenderness You look so good to me baby I feel like I'm maybe heading' for a fireworks I'll never regret

You're my Detonation
You're my Detonation
You're my Detonation
You're always gonna make me explode
You're my Detonation
You're always gonna make me explode
You're my Detonation
You're always gonna make me explode
