You got my bass pick on your necklace and I'm loving it
I'll make a poster with all the pictures of you and me
It's wonderful to come near you to kiss you Cause I know that you gonna be there with your smile and...

I've got so many ways, a hundred
To tell you what you mean to me
I wonder if it's the same to you dear
Cause I'm going nuts for you, yeah it's you

I love the way you step into my bedroom and You're wearing those white jeans, should I watch or take them off?
It's crazy if I think when we're in the car heading home You're in the passenger seat and I wonder "why should I watch the road"?

And I am there, holding your hand
You caressing slaps on my face are the best I've ever had
You'll write you name on my arm and I'll leave it there

I've got so many ways, a hundred
To tell you what you did to me
I'm sure that now it's the same for you dear
Cause I'm going crazy for you, for you
A hundred ways to tell, a hundred ways to tell you
