Dreaming skies in the sun
I'm ready to go, no reason to stay
Everything's going wrong
So I'm leaving home: there's more than this rain
I'm sure you want me for another night
But I can't see the reason
Cause I wantÂ...

I wanna feel it over me
The comfort that you never give
After all I'm not so wrong
I'm saving just another kiss
Something that we'll never miss
Just let me go and I won't fall

We're rowing out of control
Rain becomes snow, We both need a break
For all those things we could do
I feel like a fool: we're wasting our days
We could spend another night together
But I can't see the reason
Cause I wantÂ...

Don't make it any harder now
You're wasting and killing time
While you're staring at my eyes you should Look closer, those feeling are dead and gone now
