Sweet outside, mad inside
This is my description
I feel a huge weight on my head
I can do four things at one time
Falling down and getting up
I don't care if I keep failing
I know I'll never give up

I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
And I will always face my challenge
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
I will never betray my own faith
I come out from troubles stronger than before

Many times, late at night
I wake up in a cold sweat
I toss and turn right on my bed
I cannot sleep cause I'm too anxious
My duties are overwhelming
But I'm living my life day by day
I know I'll never give up
