"Deep In The Woods"

I'll bring down this house
I'll creep in and out
The thieves of the wind leaving no trace about
But all that I touch will be changed be undoubt Mind you I'll mind you I'm mine to protect
I will Watch over you who will suspect Deep in the woods where no one can detect

In the woods something glowing
A burning light has started growing
It feels like a change is upon us at last Consuming us fast, change is upon us!

The smoke in the night
the ash on the light
I think that it might be the best thing in sight
I know now I am right to let you be consumed by the light

The curse on this house has been cast throughout Only I know what lingers without
All that has led me be proof be undoubt
Bury my love right deep in the ground
I went from watchful eyes all around Secret/Save for the treasure that can not be found

In the woods something glowing
A burning light has started growing
It feels like a change is upon us at last
Consuming us fast, change is upon us!

In the woods something glowing
A burning light has started growing
It feels like a change is upon us at last
Consuming us fast, change is upon us!

The smoke in the night
the ash on the light
I think that it might be the last thing in sight
I know now I am right to let you be consumed by
the smoke in the night

the ash on the light
I think that it might be the last thing in sight
I know now I am right to let you be consumed
I know now I am right to
let you be consumed by the light
