"Sentimental chaos"

My life is a junkyard of emotions that I can't discard
When I feel empty the wind is a lonely sound
Blowing through the scraps scattered on the ground
Never rusted from the rain, they invincibly remain,
In my soul and in my brain
You don't scare me anymore, anymore, anymore, anymore
You are my holy window
You are my holy pain
You don't scare me anymore

Your Sentimental chaos is a waterfall that I can't touch
Gotta let you go because I love you
This could be a dream come true
This could turn out nightmare blue
Either way I surrender

You don't scare me anymore, anymore, anymore,
anymore, anymore
You are my holy window
You are my holy pain
You don't scare me anymore

You are my holy window
You are my holy pain
You don't scare me anymore
