I'm stuck, stuck in this skyscraper
Wasting time, riding through elevators
To the top, to the bottom, back up again
Standing at the doorway, just let me know when
And I'll climb, through all of these escalators

Is it time, time for you to go?
Time flies, when you want time to slow
Thanks for stopping, see you in an hour
First floor, the bottom of this tower
But now, it's time for you to go

You see me but you can't ignore
You feel me, I'm at your front door
You hear me now, I'm talking so loud
You're thinking, we're headed for the ground
Like elevators, we're going up, going down
Up, down, Up, down

So far, I just can't escape her
Running down, running down the escalator
Running through empty halls, tearing down broken walls
You got me in the palm of your hand
So I don't leave, because I know I can't

You see me but you can't ignore
You feel me, I'm at your front door
You hear me now, I'm talking so loud
You're thinking, we're headed for the ground
Like elevators, we're going up, going down
Up, down, Up, down

You're on the thirteenth floor now
You're above me looking down
I stop in my tracks and stare, how do I get up there?
I take the stairs

You see me but you can't ignore
You feel me, I'm at your front door
You hear me now, I'm talking so loud

You're thinking, we're headed for the ground
Like elevators, we're going up, going down
Up, down, Up, down
