As I look to my right
Something catches my eye
Just over my shoulder
It's coming in closer
Oh the energy, tearing down everything
I believe you're an A-list celebrity
You're next to me, and the chemistry
I feel it, feel it, feel it, feel it

I don't know what it is, but I'm so sure of it
That whatever it is, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it

As I look to my left
I see a dark silhouette
Yeah, it's making me blind
Because it's shining so bright
Oh my memory, I swear it's testing me
I'm sure that you're an A-list celebrity
Your complexities, and your energy
I feel it, feel it, feel it, feel it

I don't know what it is, but I'm so sure of it
That whatever it is, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it

In the blink of an eye, She's gone with the wind
Gravity she defies, And makes the sun shine again

I don't know what it is, but I'm so sure of it
That whatever it is, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it

I don't know what it is, but I'm so sure of it
That whatever it is, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it
You've got it, you've got it
