i thought i'd let you know, i thought i let you know /
i'm looking for something original /

she like to hang out where the stars be / nah, she ain't never been in no Ferrari / we dressed up for the all white party / but when we got there it was an all white party /
i told her baby girl i'm sorry / but i ain't really looking for a barbie /
i mean i love all kind of girls / but to fit in ya clothes you ain't gotta go starving / ok the show is starting / put ya cellphones on vibrate / and don't worry if i'm late on the time / first i gotta find me a date with the same frame of mind /
i'm lying, she just gotta be fine /
she make the other girls fall in line /
if she the top pick, she gotta mine / that one there, one of a kind /

i thought i'd let you know, thought i'd let ya know /
i'm looking for something original /
oh didn't you know?, oh didn't you know/
i'm looking for something original /

so original, i mean she got her own style /
and if you wait a while, she might give you the right
number to dial /
wow!, that's what the homies say /
every time she walk pass the homies way /
ay!, and we came to party, so d-dj let the record play /

and we gone it to the morning / on the dancefloor with the champagne pouring / lights and the scene fresh outta magazine / like the cover of that rolling stone man / breakout the camera, capture to the moment / we laughing and joking, this girl got me open / caught me scoping her body in motion / she so fly, man i swore she was floating /

way up high, in the sky / caught my eye, i know why /
they call her a standout girl /
'cause she stand out anywhere in the world / and she do it so different / independent, unassisted /
and homie if you don't pay attention / you might miss it , Ms. It /

i thought i'd let you know, thought i'd let ya know /
i'm looking for something original /
oh didn't you know?, oh didn't you know/
i'm looking for something original /

so original, i mean she got her own style /
and if you wait a while, she might give you the right
number to dial /
wow!, that's what the homies say /
every time she walk pass the homies way /
ay!, and we came to party, so d-dj let the record play /

i thought i'd let you know, thought i'd let ya know /
i'm looking for something original /
oh didn't you know?, oh didn't you know /
i'm looking for something original /
