Razor

Making headlines and headstones

Breaking hearts and breaking bones

Your life's a performance, so let the cameras role

Razor

You know it's all too good to last

If it's not too much to ask

Slow down, slow down, slow down before you crash

Oh, before you crash

Razor

You're such a fatal attraction

Your friends are only for fashion

We may last for a while, but we'll go out of style

Razor

You know it's all too good to last

If it's not too much to ask

Slow down, slow down, slow down before you...

Crash, crash into my arms

Put down your guard disarm, disarm

You think this whole world's against you

It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issues

Crash, crash into my arms

Put down your guard disarm, disarm

You think this whole world's against you

It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issues

Crash

Slow down before you

Crash

Slow down, slow down

Crash

Slow down, slow down, slow down

Razor, razor, razor

Crash, crash into my arms

Put down your guard disarm, disarm
You think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issues

Crash, crash into my arms
Put down your guard oh disarm, disarm
You think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issues

You think this whole world's against you
It's never your fault, we're the ones with the issues
