Árvasduottar
Such a plentiful domain
From the corner of one eye to the other
Wholly white
A sumptuous sea
Árvas

From Lulli
ohkka we go west
Cross the sea of SieidevÁirri
Through NiedÁi and the valleys
To Árvas

Our corral is in DurbbonjÁivri
There is GÁiissÁiÁš and BÁilggesnjunni
HearralÁihku
To the turf huts
In BÁirkÁi

Heed yourself on HeaikkabÁikti
Avoid stumbles in the fog
The hallowed char draw you to RissajÁivri

Liigas held a dwelling
Grandmother used to play in the field
It is now left abandoned
We took home the sleds
