"Till The End"

In the summer I'd like to sit by the window and think of how the wind blows and regret it once the winter falls my life is all about 2nd chances, all about those dances wishing I've had done some other way

when you're tied to all you hate to see when you're all you hate to be when you wish that you were somebody else when you're tryin to get through when it all falls down on you i will be there to get you out of here and to love you everyday

in the spring i'd like to watch the flowers and think of all the hours i spend sitting thinking of you birds remind me of how you flew away and the things you used to say and how i wish you had stayed for one more day

when you're tied to all you hate to see

teach me love something beautiful to fill my soul with all the joy of being loved and feelin wonderful just take control
take me home
take me home with you

and all you hate to see
will you love me everyday? untill the end
