I'll keep looking on for tomorrow,
Yeah, you know that word love,
As long as you are in my heart.
That's so hard for us to say
You'll find a place,
You might be the first to make me say that shit,
To make a brand new start!
I don't know!
Baby, baby,

Chorus:

Even when, you know that word is so hard to say,
They call it love when my sky is gray,
You're the one to take the blame away, and I could never let you go,
I'mma keep you right here, I won't never let you go, no way!
No, what's up, I'mma say the word you're waiting to hear,
If you promise not to go away!
They call it love!

You already know me nigger, yellow face... !
I feel like honeymoon, oh shit
I'm hallucinating, attitude the same... used to waiting,
Let me exercise your patience 'till your back aching,
Your knees, palm, arms and your legs shaking.
