I'm afraid, but I'm on my way and in your place, a brief rainbow maybe you'll stay and furnish our home I should never, ever, ever let you go smooth sailing

who's running?

yeah, it seems like everything about peace even every field that we freed even all the days in the haze in the heat nothing causes more alarm than your absence from my sheets

can we agree?
can we agree now?

cheers and gratitude to all and god bless you (can we agree? can we agree now?)
tears and gratitude to all, but who's listening?
(can we agree? can we agree now?)
(can we agree? can we agree now?)
