Hook:

I remember when you told me
That you won't never leave me
With the... show me
When you're up run away from us away from this Away from life, away from kids
Away from thugs, away from love
And everything I thought we both want! One day!
That's when I found out you wanted something else,
else, else
That's how I found out you wanted something else,
else, else!
That's how I found out you wanted something else,
else, else!

Huh, same day, different women
But you're the only one that I want with me
True love from day one
So when I got it right, you wanna change up!
If this ain't what you want, then girl, say so
You can play me, when everything is playful Growing more distance as the days go by Can't lie, I admit, is kinda painful, huh!
Just when I think we're doing cool
You remind me that we... keep playing me for a fool
What plan... now on you I used to do I don't now, but it's like you don't appreciate the news
Me, tell me how you really feel You're tripping, but I love you still Huh, are you ready willing and able? I am!
So what's the deal? Huh!

Huh, same here, change want me
Feels like I'm begging when I know I shouldn't Gave you everything the mother... wanting Did you take away my love when I wasn't looking Yeah, that's what it seems like
You're in love with me, but only in the meantime
Late night taxis, coming with your exes
I ain't even pressure, even though I seen the message
Gotta speak your mind and let it out
Now let me go, guess you got some things to figure it out
Baby, just do you
I tell you what, don't even call, and let me do you too!
I couldn't be the man for you,
So hopefully when you meet somebody, you're telling the truth
Until then, get your mind right!
I wish you the best! I'm on the quest for real love
And you can keep the stress, I'm gone, gone!
