Hey, where you're going? Now what's the rush?
You listen here, now you just hush
And I know what you think, that man don't know anything
But I've been around a while, I know what's happening

Everybody wanna check you out, everybody wanna be your friend
And all this pressure, where do I fit in?
They don't know nothing you don't know, ain't got nothing you ain't got
But you keep on running, you keep on running with the

Fast company, fast company
You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast
Fast company, fast company
You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast

Now it's alright to have some fun
This is your turn, your life has just begun
You're racing out the door, don't have very much to say
Your motor's running hot, you can't wait to get away

Looking up the road ahead, you can't see very far Remember where you come from, remember who you are
Be careful what you say, be careful who you trust
This world is beautiful, this world is dangerous

Fast company, fast company
You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast
Fast company, fast company
You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere

Talk to me and help me try to remember
How it feels to be so in doubt
Turn to me and help me try to remember
That raging fire that the years put out

Fast company, fast company
You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast
Fast company, fast company

You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast

Fast company, fast company

You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast

Fast company, fast company

You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast

Fast company, fast company

You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast

Fast company, fast company

You're going nowhere, you're going nowhere fast
