You like your motor on
The world is in your wake Reeving up for your snow white side show, never deviates
You've got the people singing lalala
Strung out on your Midas moment
You got the people singing lalala
White wash all your life till the lights go down

Oh no
The things you'll never know
You got the moment, tell me whats the answer
You got the instinct, tell me whats the answer
Oh no
The things you'll never know
You got the moment, tell me whats the answer
You got the instinct, tell me whats the answer

We like a little chaos
We like a little thrill
Dont take the breaks that were meant to save us
Make life a bitter pill
You got us lining up line on line
You've got us lining up line on line
For the answers you wake up with

oh no
The things you'll never know
You got the moment, tell me whats the answer
You got the instinct, tell me whats the answer

You got us lining up
(line on line)

Line on line
You got us lining up
(line on line)
You've got us lining up line on line
You got us lining up
(line on line)
You've got us lining up, You've got us lining up

oh no
The things you'll never know
You got the moment, tell me whats the answer
You got the instinct, tell me whats the answer
Oh no
The things you'll never know
You got the moment, tell me whats the answer
You got the instinct, tell me whats the answer
Oh no

Oh no
The things you'll never know
