Potential connection
A chance to make things right
Alliance, defiance
A hope for things to change

United beside me
We could be unstoppable
The city confines me
Your people can set me free

I dream of a place where
Visions breathe and thoughts are so free
I feel like I am so confined (so much confusion)
Nothing changes (nothing stays the same)
Can I live with myself
If I don't take this chance?

A question, a problem
Decision, a chance to live
I need to believe you
It's hard to comprehend

I hope for survival
It's what we all strive for
To leave home and join you
It all seems impossible
