I am stuck here with a bottle of beer and i love you
you have been gone with him far much too long and i care

why should i love you
as much as I do
i wanna sing
yeah uh huh alright come on

nobody told me that you could be cold so i loved you
just how you talked to me, just how we walked as a pair

now you're never true, i wanna sing

every night of lies i wanna cry falling my friend
she won't compromise i wanna die suicide won't do, so

I'll go away so you can't hear me say that i love you
then you will see what it's like without me
in your hair

as much as I do

that i love you

as much as I do
